

Nutrient Cycle = the transfer of nutrients back and forth between living things and the non-living environment (soil, water, air)

